

MID-ALASKA FOOTBALL CAMP

~~~~~COLLEGE COACHING FOR PLAYERS AND TEAMS~~~~~

Currently there are eleven college coaches committed to come up and offer instruction to all football players entering grades 9-12. Coaches are scheduled to come from schools like Mayville State, Division I-AA Nicholls State, Olivet College in Michigan, and Lewis & Clark College. Mayville State features over a dozen Alaskans on the roster and recently signed Lathrop's Josh Seminario and Eielson's Devin Fry. Lewis & Clark in Oregon recently announced the signing of West Valley's Marcus Cogley.

Team and Individual Instruction

You'll learn techniques from our select collegiate coaches. You'll not only learn what to do, but you'll hear directly from our coaches where you need to improve to get to the next level. They'll also tell you all about the process of being recruited and having the opportunity to play football in college.

When and Where

- The camp will be held at Lathrop High School from June 9-11.
- On June 9th and 10th there will be two afternoon sessions, from 2:00-4:00 and from 6:00-8:00.
- The Saturday session runs from nine to eleven with an award ceremony to follow.

Cost

The camp costs $100.00. You can make a check to Mid-Alaska Football Camp. You can pay cash. Or you can pay by credit card by contacting 452-5196 and telling the receptionist that you are calling to pay for the football camp.

What You Need

Each player must provide proof of medical insurance. Bring a copy of your sports physical dated after June 12, 2010.

What You Get

A great experience and a t-shirt.

